MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Distribution of Scientific Intelligence
Study S-4-62

1. This memorandum contains a recommendation for approval by the Deputy Director. Such recommendation is contained in paragraph 4.

2. Attached is a copy of SIC S-4-62, "Soviet Science and Technology Through 1971." When this study was being prepared, OSI and this office discussed distribution of the study in its final form to certain committees of the Congress. This was in keeping with the Director's expressed desire to give this publication the broadest possible distribution and I am sure the study would be of great interest to a number of the congressional committees.

3. It is my understanding that the dissemination notice on the fly-leaf of this study, which included distribution to "certain Committees of Congress," was approved by the USIB with the Summary and Conclusions on 23 May 1962. However, I believe a specific policy determination should be made on the distribution of the study to the following committees: House Science and Astronautics Committee, Senate Aeronautical and Space Sciences Committee, Senate Preparedness Investigating Subcommittee, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, Joint Economic Committee, Joint Committee on Defense Production and the CIA Subcommittees of the House and Senate Armed Services Committees.

4. It is recommended that SIC S-4-62 be transmitted to the committees and subcommittees listed in paragraph 3. However, in view of the references on page (i) to NIE's 11-6-59 and 11-6-62, it is my opinion this page should be excised from the copies so distributed.
